

HEA 1395 establishes a 23-member panel to review Indiana's assessment system. The panel consists of the following members by statute:

- Glenda Ritz, the Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Steve Braun, commissioner of the Department of Workforce Development
- Teresa Lubbers, commissioner of the Commission for Higher Education,
- Sen. Dennis Kruse, chair of the Senate Education and Career Development committee,
- Rep. Robert Behning, chair of the House of Representatives Education Committee
- Byron Ernest, member of the state board.

In accordance with the statute's requirements, Superintendent Ritz has appointed the following individuals to the panel:

- Ayana Wilson-Coles, a third grade teacher at Eagle Creek Elementary School
- Julie Kemp, Principal at Chrisney Elementary School
- Dr. Wendy Robinson, Superintendent of Fort Wayne Community Schools
- Callie Marksberry, Indiana State Teachers Association

Governor Michael Pence's appointments that include the chair of the board:

- (Chair) Nicole Fama, Principal at IPS #93
- Dr. Jim Roberts, Superintendent of the Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation
- Charles Weisenbach, Principal at Roncalli High School
- Brent Freeman, Special Education Officer for Indianapolis Public Schools
- Dr. Michelle McKeown, General Counsel and Director of Policy at the Indiana Charter School Board

President Pro-Tempore of the Senate David Long's appointments:

- Jean Russell, 2016 Teacher of the Year and literacy specialist at Haverhill Elementary
- Steve Baker, Principal at Bluffton High School
- Dr. Kenneth Folks, Superintendent at East Allen County Schools
- Marilyn Moran-Townsend, Chairman and CEO, CVC Communication

Speaker of the House Brian Bosma's appointments:

- Melissa Scherle, Second Grade Teacher at Washington Irving Elementary in IPS
- Edward Rangel, Assistant Principal at Tindley Genesis
- Dr. Scott Croner, Blackford County School Superintendent
- Dr. Lynne Stallings, Parent and Professor at Ball State University